All who see me scoff at me;
they mock me with parted lips, they wag
their heads:
"He relied on the LORD; let him deliver him,
let him rescue him, if he loves him."

Psalm 22:8-9, 17-18, 19-20, 23-24

Todos los que me ven, de mí se burlan;
me hacen gestos y dicen:
"Confiaba en el Señor, pues que él lo salve;
si de veras lo ama, que lo libre"

Salmo 21, 8-9. 17-18a. 19-20. 23-24

The Paschal Triduum

On Holy Thursday, we will be washing one another's feet. This is an act of intimate closeness, humility, and hospitality. I wish that we would start every Mass by washing each other's feet. On Holy Thursday, we remember that we are invited to participate with God through the gift of a meal. During supper, Jesus took a towel, and tying it around his waist, he began to wash the disciples' feet. In this action, Jesus pours himself out in service and love, and in doing so, gives us a model of follow.

Thursday leads to Jesus' violent death on the cross.

Every time I listen to the Passion Narrative on Good Friday, I feel sick because it is a public spectacle of interrogation, intimidation, manipulation, confusion, and violence. This is much of what we see today. Jesus's trial and death was an act of public terrorism. Despite the horror of Good Friday, Christians are convinced that the whole of human history and creation was redeemed on the cross.

As you enter the Passion Narrative, you may want to pay close attention to the role that you play in the drama of the trial and crucifixion of Jesus. I also invite you to accompany Mary, the mother of Jesus, in her sorrow, and to feel the sadness that God felt as Jesus, God's Son, was being crucified.

The longest day of the year for me is the time between Good Friday and Easter Vigil because I am so used to celebrating Mass at any time, and day of the week. However, between Good Friday and the Easter Vigil, I experience darkness and desolation because no Sacraments are celebrated.

I cannot imagine a life without Jesus in the Sacraments, and a community without disciples. Therefore, at the Easter Vigil, my cup overflows with gladness because I experience the fullness of life. On Easter Sunday, I realize how much God loves us, and how much I love all of God's creation.

Have a blessed Triduum and know how profoundly you are loved.
